

Anu Srinivasan

DIRECTOR

Anu is a strategist, entrepreneur, and an influencer who shifts and transforms businesses to deliver to their vision. She mentors and coaches with passion, partnering and guiding her clients to effectively strengthen and elevate their leadership.

She is currently the Managing Director of Procurement at PwC. She has 20+ years' experience successfully delivering to major procurement, strategy and change programs for large AX100 corporations. Her experience spans across top and mid-tier consulting, telco, financial services, healthcare and government. She has run large procurement organisations with a spend profile ranging from 800M - 1Billion and transformed the function from a tactical into a value driving partnership with the business.

Anu is a Yoga Australia certified yoga teacher. She is the founder of Shvaas yoga, with a focus on mindfulness as a key leadership skill.

Anu is frequently invited to industry forums to share her thoughts on leadership, talent, strategies for amplifying success and empowering to unleash the untapped potential.

Her passion is to invest in the leaders of tomorrow and living life to its fullest.